

DEPARTMENTAL SEMINARS

Summer Term 2021

19 Apr Cancelled

26 Apr Caroline Hickman (University of Bath)

Facing the difficult truths of the climate emergency; apocalyptic disaster or transformational moment in history?

4 May* Rebecca Willis (Lancaster University)

(Tuesday) More democracy, not less: The role of democratic participation for climate action

10 May Ana Bastos (MPI-BGC)

Compound extreme events from an ecological perspective

17 May Martin Palkovic (ECMWF)

Digital Twin of planet Earth – what does it mean for computing in meteorology?

24 May Paul Holland (BAS)

Influence of anthropogenic forcing on thinning of the Antarctic Ice Sheet

1 Jun* Mary-Jane Bopape (South African Weather Service)

(Tuesday) South African Weather Service weather and climate operations and research

7 Jun† James D. Doyle (Naval Research Laboratory)

(15:00) Arctic Cyclones and the Influence on Short-Term Sea Ice Change and Moisture Transport

14 Jun Sharanya J. Majumdar (University of Miami)

African Easterly Waves and Tropical Cyclogenesis: Mechanisms and Predictability

* note the 4th May and 1st June seminars will be on Tuesday at 12:00 due to public holidays

† note the 7th June seminar will be on Monday at 15:00 due to the time difference with California

For additional information see: <https://research.reading.ac.uk/meteorology/news-and-events/seminars/>

Contact: Robert Lee (r.w.lee@reading.ac.uk)

Mondays* at 12:00†
on Microsoft Teams